LÉGATION DE LA RÉPUBLIQUE
D'HAÏTI

Washington, 19 Juin 1906.

No. 1459.

Monsieur le Consul Général,

En vertu d'instructions reçues tant de Monsieur le Président de la République que du Secrétaire d'Etat des Finances, je vous serais obligé de vous transporter dans les bureaux de l'American Bank Note Company et de faire détruire en votre présence les plaques et matrices qui ont servi à la fabrication de nos derniers billets de caisse. Le tout sera constaté par un procès-verbal que vous me transmettrez en duplicata.

Je saisis avec plaisir cette occasion de vous renouveler, Monsieur le Consul Général, les assurances de ma considération distinguée.
